

International Friendship Center

$15,000

Developing relationships with international students at the University of Wisconsin, Madison opens many doors. By God's Word and Spirit, international students would come to know the love of God in Christ Jesus. They will then return to their homelands and, Lord willing, take the knowledge of the Gospel with them. With a good track record and solid footing on the campus (Calvary Lutheran Church), this $15,000 grant will go towards the International Friendship Center's director's salary. It will also cover operating expenses in their current Bible studies, ESL and hospitality programs.

Mission Grant Prayer: Dear Lord, make us wise to the many mission doors You open to us. Especially do we thank You for the students from around the world that come to UW Madison to study. We beseech You to use IFC to boldly proclaim Your name and thereby bring some International students to faith in Christ. Use the director, the pastor and the programs to glorify Your name. It is in the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen
