

LWML SWD Mission Grant #5

Shelter My Sheep · Free at Last Ministry

$20,000

Free at Last Ministry (FALM) creates a support system on the outside of prison walls. Men and women learn that they are set free in Jesus Christ. Specific use of grant money includes locating safe housing, providing vouchers for transportation to continue attending mentoring sessions, and church services. FALM also utilizes a computer lab with WIFI to assist attendees with their job search. FALM staff and volunteers work to reflect God's love for all of mankind, played out through the sacrifice of His Son.

Mission Grant Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, You came to bind up the broken-hearted and set the prisoners free. I praise and thank You for the miracle of lives transformed by Your grace and mercy through the Christ-centered prison service of Pastor Ikanih and the Free At Last Ministry. Please use my gifts to undergird this work. Continue to lead many, through Gospel instruction, Baptism and supportive fellowship, to re-directed living, as well as, upon release, to relocate in places suited to productive citizenship. In Him whose Good News sets us free, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.
